

EVERYTHING

Verse 1 -

Remember back when I was young, & everything was fun/
Thought shootin's on the news was just stunts 101/
Like in the movies, Naive little rugrat, ignorance is bliss/
And I guess that's what I miss most - ignorance's kiss/
Playgrounds, gym class, dodge ball, think fast/
Cause no mother should buy a casket for a child/
Gunshots go off, & that's the sound of hustle/
Yes, rappers do damage tellin' kids "Get out & hustle"/
Instead of tellin' them to read a book cause that sounds nerdy/
I'd rather be an old Urkel than shot dead before 30/
I never grew up in the hood, but knew a lot of thugs/
And every last one of them just need a lot of hugs/
Cause life gets short, & people feel the pressure/
Killin' for a dollar bill, we rabbits after cabbage/
They fill the world with heartache, of this I do not partake/
I'm roamin' in the desert & I'm headed for my stargate/
I just believe in Love & that is Gods name/
I'm not a fan of self, & my nemesis is fame/
If you're broken & lookin' for a savior/
I promise you he's right there knockin' on your heart/
Waitin' for an answer, but pride comes before the fall/
That's why He had to knock Saul off & change his name to Paul/
And if he could take a murderer, & wash him white as snow/
Then He could fix all the problems, only he could solve em/
My God is awesome, & I will proclaim it/
And you could deny Christ but that aint gone change Him/
Yeah, and you could deny Christ but that aint gone change Him/

Verse 2 -

Life is so short, they call it blade of grass/
And anything material you got will not last/
We're Pocketless Souls, walking on this road/
With no guard rails, watch your step that's hell down there/
For some it's hell right now & hell right here/
She said she had a bad day, he said he had a bad year/
But no fear like skaters, stack on them layers/
And backfoot kickflip it & grind on these haters/
There's 38,000 different denominations in the Christian churches/
That need to focus on the Christian purpose/
For what it's worth, I'm here to help the people hurt/
Cause that's what Christ did, That's how Christ lived/
And if everyone was on that mindset, no child would starve/
Nobody would murder, there's enough to go around/
But greed got us blinded/
And you can't say no one ever told you cause I did, I did/
