

HANDS & FEET (FEAT. MARC MILLAN)

BY:JE'KOB

Verse 1

Now she was barely 13 and had a heart of Gold /
Mama told her don't you let it go, no don't you let it go /
And what she thought was love got in the way, soon as she heard him say that she was beautiful /
And he told her he was here to stay, and he'd take her away to some place beautiful, forever and ever and ever /
And he planned to take her far away from home /
Soon as she stepped into his car, they'd never see her again /

Chorus

Jesus, My Soul is bleeding
My body's shouting
I need to see your hands & feet

Oh oh, Jesus,
My tears are empty,
this heart is weary
I need to see, I just can't see your hands & feet

Verse 2

They locked her up (they locked her up) but she's not alone (she's not alone) /
She's with these other women but their minds are gone /
Subject to the evil that men want to dream up /
Wickedness inside their hearts as they scheme up /
So they silence her (they silence her), but they ain't silence me (they ain't silence me) /
And they ain't silence you (they ain't silence you), and together we could set them free (we could set them free) / Cause the word says do right, defend the oppressed and the fatherless, and seek justice /
If you say you love God, but won't help those in need then you are just a buster /
That's the truth, I ain't gone lie, butter it up, ain't even gone try /
Sit and complain na that's a waste of time /
Cause every single day that girl gone cry /
So when she prays at night (at night), that somebody would save her life (her life) /
She's praying' for me and you, we the hands and feet of Christ - Wake up Church! /

Chorus

Jesus, My Soul is bleeding
My body's shouting

I need to see your hands & feet

Oh oh, Jesus,
My tears are empty,
this heart is weary
I need to see, I just can't see your hands & feet
