PLEASE DON'T GO

By:Je'kob

As I go through this world/
I discover love is more than hard to find/
And I see al the girls, but there's none that can compare/
To the one in front of me/

You're nothing' but a low down thief girl/ You're tryina steal my whole dang world world/ I'm about to make you mine, mine, mine/ Here I go, Here I go/

Chorus

Hey baby please don't go cause the party just begun/ Hey baby please don't go cause I know you are the one/

Verse 2

All the girls I've been with/
And not one studied the blueprint of my heart/
But you know just what I need/
And there's none that can compare to the one in front of me/

You're nothing' but a low down thief girl/ You're tryina steal my whole dang world world/ I'm about to make you mine, mine, mine/ Here I go, Here I go/

Chorus

Hey baby please don't go cause the party just begun/ Hey baby please don't go cause I know you are the one/

Verse 3

I could be yours, you could be mine/ Right at the hip girl, we could be tied/ Zoom to the future, we so fly/ I see my kids in the iris of your eyes/

And I'mma give ya xo's/ I spit the truth you're so special/ I'mma hold you tight and won't let go/ And what's mine is yours when I get dough/

Chorus

Hey baby please don't go cause the party just begun/ Hey baby please don't go cause I know you are the one/

Hey baby please don't go cause the party just begun/ Hey baby please don't go cause I know you are the one/

Hey baby please don't go cause the party just begun/ Hey baby please don't go cause I know you are the one/
